

SEP | In It To Pin It

After virtually touring Mana Hewitt's exhibit Persistence, students will learn how to create embossed button pins inspired by heroic women using tin foil and paint.

OCT | What a Relief

After virtually touring Sara Farrington's exhibit Model Home, students will learn different techniques for creating abstract paper relief sculptures.

NOV | Wild at Art

After virtually touring Maura Kenny's exhibit Where the Rivers Flow, students will learn watercolor techniques to paint wild waterscapes inspired by the Pee Dee and Waccamaw Rivers.

DEC | Leaf Your Mark

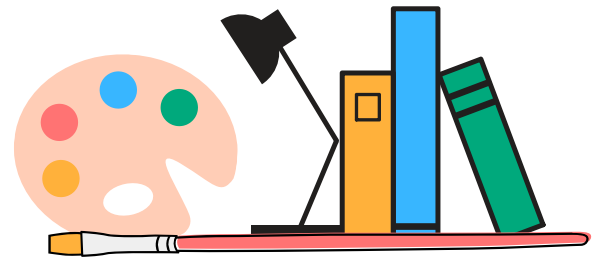

Students will view the lithographs of exhibiting artist Jim Creal and create colorful nature prints using watercolor and leaves.

LIBRARY AFTER SCHOOL PROGRAM

Art Museum Education Coordinator Tracey Roode brings FREE virtual art classes each month to area libraries for children ages 6-12.

HOW IT WORKS

Pick up a free art kit at a participating library (call ahead). Follow along with our virtual exhibit tour and workshop at your convenience (videos will post each month on the Museum and libraries' Facebook pages).
