1.28 | 1- 3:00 pm | Illustrating Illusions

Inspired by exhibiting artist Jen York, teens will explore 3-dimensional art. In the studio, students will learn all about form and structure to design their own pop-up wooden box.

2.25 | 1 - 3:00 pm | Cut a Rug

In this class, teens will tour the work of exhibiting artist Randi Reiss-McCormack. Teens will learn the art of rug hooking to create their very own tapestry.

3.25 | 1 - 3:00 pm | Dinner for Two

Inspired by American feminist artist Judy Chicago, students will tour The Jasper Project's Supper Table. This exhibition is inspired by Chicago's own 1974 series "The Dinner Party." In the studio, teens will learn about decals to design their own dinner plate that celebrates an important woman in their life.

4.22 | 1 - 3:00 pm | Happy Earth Day

In celebration of Earth Day, teens will explore the art of creating their own paper! With the help of recycled paper, seeds and other organic materials, teens will not only learn to make their own paper but how to be resourceful using materials they have right at home.

SCHEDULE

A few things to know before you arrive at the Museum...

LISTEN UP

All eyes and ears on the instructor when they are speaking.

USE YOUR INSIDE VOICE

We can have fun without being loud. Let's respect the viewing experience of visitors to the Museum and the staff working in their offices.

WALK SOFTLY

Please: no running, stomping or jumping in the Museum.

NO TOUCHY

In the galleries, keep your hands to yourself. No touching the art, the walls or the pedestals/sculpture stands.
