SPRING 2024 CLASS SCHEDULE

January 20th

Based on a piece found in the National Association of Women Artists Sisterhood exhibit, students will create watercolor koi fish.

February 17th

Inspired by the current exhibits, our CCU intern will design an engaging lesson with a creative accompanying art project.

March 16th

Following a tour of the Bishop Collection of Historical Maps & Antique Prints, students will create topographic air dry clay maps.

April 20th

Students will make colorful abstract works with oil pastels.

MUSEUM/STUDIO RULES

No Touching!

Keep your hands to yourself. No touching the art, the walls, or pedestals.

Listening Ears On!

Listen up when the instructor is talking. All eyes and ears on them.

Use Inside Voices!

Speak in an inside voice. Speaking softly is respectful to other museum guests and staff.

Walk Softly!

While in the museum, no stomping, jumping, or any horseplay.
